

Born in 1951, at the peak of her father's ministry, Joanna Coe Herndon is carrying on her family's calling to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to the whole world.

Joanna's father, the late Jack Coe Senior, was gifted by God with one of the most powerful Pentecostal revival ministries in modern times. His accomplishments are legendary. His legacy, unequalled.

Purpose & Vision

The Lord has imparted to Joanna spiritual gifts identical to that of her father and given her a relevant message for this end-time generation.

Joanna and her husband Randy Herndon believe God has called them to awaken the church to its' need for true revival. Their messages are designed to inspire Godly repentance and ignite a passion to reach the lost with the love of Jesus Christ.

In every service the tangible presence of God is felt. Souls are saved, the sick are healed, and undeniable miracles take place through faith in the matchless Name of Jesus Christ.

Background

Joanna and Randy are experienced pastors and committed ministers. Mrs. Herndon attended Southwestern Assemblies of God Bible College in Texas, and Lee College in Tennessee. They actively preach at conventions, seminars, and conferences across the nation.

“The fire upon the altar must be kept burning.
It must not go out.”
